Mosaic is a quarterly published by the Literary Freedom Project, a 501(c)3, tax-exempt, not-for-profit arts organization empowering communities of color through literature, creative thinking, and new media.

LFP, based in the Bronx, NY, organizes community-based workshops and the Reverse Festival, a new-media conference that invites community activists, organizers, and educators to participate in workshops that focus on utilizing new media tools: digital recorders, video cameras, weblogs, and podcasting to better communicate with their core audiences and advocates.

One-Year (4 issues) Subscription: $15.00

Two-Year (8 issues) Subscription: $22.00
