

Mosaic

LITERARY ARTS OF THE DIASPORA

Launched in 1998, Mosaic explores the literary arts created by writers of African descent. The print and digital versions have featured such artists Ayana Mathis, Lucille Clifton, Tayari Jones, Bernice McFadden, Nicole Dennis-Benn, Walter Dean Myers, Javaka Steptoe, and Chimamanda Adichie among others.

Reach arts-focused and literary readers. Join Bloomsbury Books, The Bronx Museum of the Arts, Little Brown & Company and others. Advertise in Mosaic.

Spring: February 15

Reservation: Jan 1

Summer: June 15

Reservation: May 1

Fall/Winter: October 15

Reservation: September 1

Literary Freedom Project
314 West 231 St., #470
Bronx NYC 10463

Mosaic is produced by the Literary Freedom Project, a Bronx-based 501(c)3 tax-exempt not-for-profit arts organization. www.LiteraryFreedom.org

Advertise

Full-page color ad: $150

Full-page b/w ad: $100

Full-page ads only. Ad must be provided by publisher. Add $50 for inside or back covers.

Contact

info@mosaicmagazine.org

www.MosaicMagazine.org

Reserve your placement

info@mosaicmagazine.org

or visit www.bit.ly/mosaicrates

Preview Sample Issues

www.issuu.com/mosaicbooks

Average Print Run: 900

Paid Subscriptions: 150

(15% libraries)

Retail Circulation: 600

Frequency: Tri-annual

Ad size: 8.5 x 11" (1/4" bleed)

Print Distribution

Publishers Distribution Group

